Draft Copy

Article one: Name

The name of the Union shall be called Mao (Ememai) Students' Union

Article Two: Motto

SACRIFICE AND PROGRESS

Article Three: Flag

TOP: WHITE

DOWN: GREEN

Article Four: Emblem

Article Five: Membership.

1. Primary Membership. Every bonafide Mao (Ememai) student shall be a primary member of the Union.

1. Union Membership. a) All the Mao (Ememai) Students' units located in Mao Areas shall be considered as bonafide members of the Mao (Ememai) Students' Union. b) Newly formed or affiliated unit shall be an associate member of the Union. The aforesaid unit(s) can attain full-fledged membership when the Union considers it deemed fit. However, the aforesaid Unit(s) shall be under the Union's observation for a minimum period of one year.

1. Temporal Unit(s) Membership. All temporal Unit(s) set up while in the course of pursuing academic activities shall be a temporal member of the Mao (Ememai) Students' Union. They cannot function in any official capacity of the Unit at any Mao (Ememai) Students' Union's official function.

1. Affiliation. a) Only one Membership shall be given to one bonafide Unit. b) An Associate membership shall be granted by the Presidential Council on the basis of the merits of the newly formed body. c) Granting of a full-fledged Unit from the Associate member shall be executed with a 2/3 voting by the members present in the General Body Meeting (GBM). d) The Executive Council shall realize/membership fee for Affiliation.

Article six: Loss of Membership

Any members of the Union, collectively or individually can loss Membership on:

1. Violation of the Constitution; in words, in action or otherwise.

1. Decision of the Union Assembly shall be decided by 2/3 voting majority of the members present on the charges laid against the member(s), unit(s) for a given period of time.

Article Seven: Jurisdiction.

1. The territorial Jurisdiction of the Union shall extend to all Mao inhabited areas and to where-so-ever any Mao Student(s) resides.

1. The Executive Jurisdiction of the Union shall extend over all the bonafide Unit(s), Associate member(s) and temporal member(s).

1. There shall be no Co-ordinating Ememai Students' Union other than the bonafide Units.

Article Eight: Official Language.

The Official Language of the Union shall be Emela and English.

Article Nine: Legislature.

1. The Legislative body of the Union shall be called "Union Assembly" which shall consist of the representatives of all the bonafide Units.

1. The Bonafide Units shall delegate 2 (Two) representatives: They shall represent their respective Unit for any period of time according to their own constitutional provision and procedures.

1. There shall be an Executive Organ of the Union Assembly consisting of the following officers: a) Speaker b) Deputy Speaker c) Assembly Secretary.

Article Ten: Quorum.

1. The Quorum of the Union Assembly shall be formed by 2/3rd members of the bonafide Units of the Union.

1. The quorum of the Executive Council meeting/Emergency meeting/Committee meeting shall be formed by a simple majority of the members.

Article Eleven: Assembly, Conference and Meeting

1. The Union Assembly shall have its sitting at least twice (two times) in a calendar year

1. The Executive Council meeting shall be held compulsorily in each quarter of a calendar year. However, the Executive Council can convene a meeting as and when situation demands.

1. The tenure shall consist of two years. In the first year of the tenure an Academic programme shall be conducted. In the second year of the tenure, a general conference shall be conducted towards the end of the tenure.

Article Twelve: The Executive Council.

1. There shall be an Executive Organ of the Union and shall be called Executive Council.

1. The Executive Council shall consist of the following officers: a) President b) Vice President c) General Secretary d) Assistant General Secretary e) Secretary Finance f) Secretary Publicity and Information g) Secretary Social and Culture h) Secretary Literary i) Secretary Statistical Analyst j) Secretaries Woman Co-ordinators k) Chief Auditor l) Editor m) Secretary Games and Sports. N.B: The Secretary of Games and Sport may organize Games and Sports as and when necessary

1. The Executive Council shall nominate 2 (two) representatives each to NSF and ANSAM respectively.

Article Thirteen: Tribunals.

1. There shall be Tribunals of the Union consisting of three members.

1. The Tribunals shall be Elected/Nominated by the Union Assembly.

1. It shall be headed by a Tribunal General Elected/Nominated by the Union Assembly from amongst the Tribunals.

Article Fourteen: Tenure.

1. The tenure of the Executive Council shall be for 2 (two) calendar years.

1. In the event of circumstantial compulsion, the Union Assembly may extend the Tenure of the Executive Council for a period of 2 (two) months.

Article Fifteen: Finance

1. The Union shall seek and receive contribution from its members, well wishers, institutions and organizations for its functioning.

1. There shall be Finance Committee of the Union, comprising of the Finance Secretary as its Chairman, President and General Secretary as Committee members

Article Sixteen: Powers and Functions of the Finance Committee.

1. The Finance Committee shall be responsible and should be unanimous in dealing with all financial transactions of the Union and shall maintain strict accounts.

1. The Committee shall prepare and present an Annual Budget to the Union Assembly within two months of take over from the previous tenure. In the second year, the committee shall prepare and present an Annual Budget to the Union Assembly within the first 45 (forty-five) days of the year.

1. No contribution shall be received or disbursed without the consensual decision of the Finance Committee.

1. No financial business shall be carried out by the Finance Committee without presenting to the Union Assembly.

Article Seventeen: Powers and Functions of the Tribunals.

1. The tribunals shall function as the legal advisor of the Union.

1. The Tribunals shall deal and resolve the constitutional crisis, whose decision(s) shall be final and binding.

1. Amendment(s) of the constitution shall first be referred to the Tribunal for examination and shall be referred to the Union Assembly for necessary amendment(s)

Article Eighteen: Powers and Functions of the Union Assembly

1. The Union Assembly is the highest authority of the Union.

1. The Union Assembly shall Legislate and enforce any matters concerning the interest of the Maos and shall :- a) Deliberate and resolve any such matter. b) Affiliate Unit(s) c) Take disciplinary action/impeachment. d) Divide Financial matters; and e) Elect, Nominate, and institute the various Executive Committees and Commissioners of the Union.

1. The Union Assembly shall elect its own executive council.

1. In case of any constitutional lapses or breakdown between the Union and any of its Unit(s), Associate member(s), the Union in consultation with the Tribunal shall prevail.

1. In the event of constitutional breakdown or otherwise of a Unit(s), Associate member(s), when brought to the notice of the Union, The Union shall intervene and shall act as a facilitator to resolve the crisis. And if the situations so demand, the Union shall assume charge till such times the Union is satisfied with the development.

1. Resolution and Decisions adopted by the Union Assembly shall be final and binding on all the Unit(s) and Associate member(s).

Article Nineteen: Powers and Functioning of the Assembly Executives.

The Assembly Executives

1. Speaker: a) The Speaker shall summon and shall be the presiding officer in the Union Assembly. b) The Speaker shall receive, reject, propose agenda and place them before the Union Assembly. c) The Speaker shall assume the power of the Executive Council in the event the Executive Council is: i. Dissolved ii. Defunct iii. Suspended The Speaker shall formulate programme(s) and policies in consultation with the Union Assembly for the restoration of the Executive Council within a period of two months. d) The Speaker may suspend or take disciplinary action on member(s) of the Executive Council, Committee member(s) and other organs of the Union in the event when the Speaker is satisfied that: i. The concerned member(s) has failed to uphold the constitution of the Union; or ii. The concerned member(s) has misused the good office of the Union; or iii. The concerned member(s) has failed to discharge his/her responsibilities. The Speaker shall table the matter to the Union Assembly within a period of 30(Thirty) days.

1. Deputy Speaker. a) The Deputy Speaker shall assume all the functions and powers of the Speaker in the event of the latter's absence through authorization by the Speaker. b) The Deputy Speaker shall assist the Speaker in the smooth conduct of the office in all normal circumstances.

1. Assembly Secretary. The Assembly Secretary shall record and maintain all the proceedings, minutes of the Union Assembly.

Article Twenty: Powers and Functions of the Executive Council.

1. The Executive Council shall execute the decision(s) of the Union Assembly.

1. The Executive Council shall meet at any time of the year as and when situation demands.

1. Any member(s) of the Council failing to attend the Council meeting two times consecutively, disciplinary action(s) shall be proceeded against the concerned member(s).

1. The Executive Council members shall not have the voting rights in the Union Assembly.

The Executive Council:

1. President: a) The President shall be the head of the Executive Council. b) All the Executive powers and functions of the Union rest on the President. The President shall execute them directly or in consultation with General Secretary and the members of the Executive Council. c) The President shall either accept or reject the resignation tendered by any member(s) of the Executive Council or Committee(s) and shall forward the matter to the Speaker. d) The President shall exercise his/her vote in the event of 'tie' in the election of the Union. e) The President shall be vested with discretionary power to utilize an amount of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) once in his/her tenure in times of emergencies from the Union's exchequer, and the matter must take a post facto approval in the first Executive Council meeting.

1. Vice President: a) The Vice President shall assume all the powers and functions of the President in the event of the latter's absence or impeachment from the office. b) The Vice President shall discharge the responsibilities of the Union as may be assigned by the President from time to time.

1. General Secretary: a) The General Secretary shall record and maintain all the minutes and proceedings of the Executive Council meeting. b) The General Secretary shall co-ordinate and supervise the functioning of the respective Secretaries. c) In the absence of the President and the Vice President, the General Secretary shall assume their responsibilities and functions as the head of the Union. d) The General Secretary shall be responsible for the official correspondence of the Union in consultation with the President.

1. Assistant General Secretary: a) The Assistant General Secretary shall assist the General Secretary. b) In the event of impeachment, resignation or absence of the General Secretary, the Assistant General Secretary shall assume the charge of the General Secretary.

1. Secretary Finance: a) The Secretary Finance shall record and maintain all the financial transactions of the Union. b) The Secretary Finance shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Union. c) The Secretary Finance shall receive or advance payments as and when decided by the Finance Committee or in the event of emergency requirement.

1. Secretary Publicity and Information: a) The Secretary Publicity and Information shall be responsible for the wide publicity of the programmes and policies of the Union. b) The Secretary Publicity and Information shall look after the affairs for promotion of good relationship amongst the Units of the Union, Organization, Communities and the general public.

1. Secretary Social and Culture: a) The Secretary Social and Culture shall be responsible for promoting cultural and other related activities. b) The Secretary Social and Culture shall initiate and conduct cultural meets, programmes and shall be responsible for collections and preservation of the all cultural articles.

1. Secretary literary: a) The Secretary literary shall be responsible for Organising Symposium, Seminar Workshop, Debate and other literary activities. b) The Secretary Literary shall be responsible for publishing of Magazines, Journals, Periodicals, Pamphlets, etc. c) He/She shall be responsible for collection and maintenance of literary records.

1. Secretary Statistical Analyst: a) The Secretary Statistical Analyst shall maintain statistical records of Population, Number of Villages, Educational Institutions, Students, Teachers, Employees, and Literacy rate, Social Organization, etc. b) The information / data collected during his/her tenure shall be analyzed and present the same in the General Conference. The analyzed information /data present in the General Conference shall be published in the form of a booklet and present it to the Union for maintenance of record.

1. Women Co-ordinators: a) The Women Co-ordinators shall undertake the role of co-ordinating the active participation of woman members in the activities of the Union. b) The Woman Co-ordinators shall be responsible for initiating agendas from Women members as and when the need arises.

1. Editor: a) The Editor shall be the head of the Editorial Board which shall consist of Literacy Secretary and a Member who shall be nominated by the Chief Editor. b) The Editor shall be responsible in editing any publications undertaken by the Union.

1. Chief Auditor: a) The Chief Auditor shall nominate two members as Secretary and a Member b) The Auditors shall audit all accounts and financial transaction of the Union and shall submit to the Union Assembly. c) The Auditors are empowered to question and verify the Union's financial transactions and if found unsatisfactory the concern member (s) be reffered to the Union Assembly Speaker.

Article Twenty one: No Confidence Motion and Disciplinary Action.

1. The Members of the Executive organs of the Union shall hold office as long as he /she enjoy the confidence of the Union Assembly.

1. One or more member(s) of the Union Assembly may move a no confidence motion against one or more member(s) of the Executive Council, Committee and the speaker of the Union Assembly stating the reason(s) for the motion duly supported by substantial evidence(s).

1. The motion shall be tabled to the Union Assembly within one month (Thirty Days) from the date of the receipt of the petition.

1. The Executive member(s) against whom a No confidence motion is moved shall be called for explanation, and the concerned member may submit his/her explanation to the Assembly.

1. Speaker No confidence motion (Pending).

1. In the event of a No confidence motion tabled against the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker, the Tribunals shall convene a meeting to discuss and examine the matter.

1. The Union Assembly shall take disciplinary action against any member(s) of the Executive organs of the Union in the event when: a) His/her continuation in the office of the Union is considered as a threat to or misused of Union's and a disgrace to the Union. b) The constitution of the Union is violated in any manner.

1. The No Confidence Motion should have the support of 1/3 majority of the Union Assembly.

1. In the event of No Confidence Motion against whom a motion is initiated the decision by 2/3 majority of the members present and voting during the Union Assembly shall be final and binding.

Article Twenty two: Amendment of the Constitution.

1. One or more member(s) of the Union Assembly may move for amending any part(s) of the Article(s) of the Union constitution by submitting a petition to the Speaker with explanatory note.

1. Any petition for amendment shall be referred to the Tribunals for examination than tabled in the Union Assembly for necessary resolution.

1. The approval of the 2/3rd majority of the members of the Union Assembly present and voting shall be final and binding.

Article twenty three: Election.

1. Election Rules and Procedures. a) Election of the Office Bearers shall be conducted after every two years. It shall be conducted during the General Conference just before the 'Valedictory Session'. b) Executive officials are eligible for re-election. However, they cannot contest for the same post which he/she held for more than two consecutive times. c) A Unit shall not be allowed to file for more than two posts in the Executive Council Election. d) In the event of post(s) declared vacant, the Executive Council can nominate any candidate(s) deemed fit preferably from the unrepresented Unit(s). e) The Executive Council shall appoint one (1) Chief Election Commissioner and two (2) members. f) The Executive Council shall appoint the Election Commissioner in advance i.e. three (3) months ahead of the General Election. g) The Electoral College of the Union shall be formed in the same manner as that of Union Assembly. h) The mode of voting during election shall be by sacred ballot system. i) A candidate seeking election to any post(s) of the Executive official shall be a member of the Union.

1. Qualification for Candidate. A candidate seeking for election to any post(s) of the Executive official of the Union shall possess the following qualifications: a) Candidate for all the posts of the Executive Council must be a graduate or equivalent; b) The candidate must obtain an authorization from his/her concerned respective Unit; c) The candidate must not be affiliated to any political party(ies); d) The candidate must not be a government employee or a married person; e) The candidate must be a person capable of rendering full time service during the Tenure; and f) The candidate must not be a person with any criminal convict or case pending against him/her. g) He/she must be a Mao by blood.

1. Powers and Function of the Election Commissioner: a) The Election Commissioner shall be responsible for the conduct of election(s) by: i. Announcement of date, time and place of election schedule; ii. Preparation of ballot paper(s) nomination papers and issuing of the same; iii. Preparation of electoral rolls; iv. Scrutiny of nomination, acceptance and rejection of candidature; v. Polling, counting, declaration of results and issue of election certificates;

Article Twenty four: Fundamental Duties.

1. To render service and defend the Ememai and the Union-when summoned by need to do so.

1. To individually and collectively strive towards excellence in all spheres of mental and physical activities to do honour and proud to the Ememai.

1. To promote the basic Human principles of peaceful co-existence.

1. To protect human lives and rights and properties and to support all movements safeguarding them.

1. To adhere to morally and socially acceptable norms that shall project the good image of the society and the Union; and

1. To abide by the codes as notified by the Union, Unit(s) and Associate member(s) from time to time.

Article Twenty five: Directive Principles.

1. To promote cultural, educational and economic interests and programmes of the Ememai.

1. To preserve our cultures, customs and traditions.

1. To champion the cause and interest of the traditions.

1. To fight social, economic, educational and regional injustice.

1. To formulate and promote inclusion in the school curriculum a study of Mao history and literature, art and culture.

1. To safeguard wildlife and natural resources in all the Ememai inhabited areas.

1. To strife for ensuring all educational facilities in educational institutions.

1. To evolve methods and implement them for bringing about an egalitarian Ememai Society, and

1. To cherish, uphold and further promote the fraternal feeling among all the Ememai Society.

N.B. please gives your interpretation in Article 2, 3, and 4.